

THOMAS MORRIS

BICYCLIST KILLED WHEN HIT BY CAR ON LAKE SHORE ROAD

Two boys are in the Toronto Western hospital and another lies dead as a result of a crash on the Lake Shore Road yesterday. The three were riding their bicycles toward Port Credit when they were overtaken from behind by an automobile which ran down all three. Wm. Macdonald, Eight St., New Toronto, faces a manslaughter charge as a result of the accident. The layout shows (1) Nelson Gage, 16, of Montrose Ave., who was first reported killed but later found to be suffering from severe lacerations on the head and concussion; (2) Thomas Morris, aged 15, of 101 Montrose Ave., who was instantly killed by the motor car, and (3) Fred Hourke, aged 15, of 118 Montrose Ave., who is in the hospital suffering from bruises and shock.
